2. Equipment Uptime and Downtime Penalty

2.1. Uptime Requirement

The Supplier shall maintain a minimum uptime of 95% for the MRI System during each calendar month, calculated on a 24 hours × 7 days × 365 days basis.

The monthly uptime shall be calculated as follows:

$$\text{Uptime (\%)} = [(\text{Total Hours in the Month} - \text{Downtime Hours}) \div \text{Total Hours in the Month}] \times 100$$

The following shall not be treated as downtime:

- Scheduled preventive maintenance approved in advance by HLL;
- Downtime attributable solely to failure of electrical supply, HVAC, civil infrastructure or other utilities not attributable to the Supplier;
- Downtime arising from Force Majeure events.

In addition to the above monthly uptime requirement, the cumulative downtime during any Contract Year shall not exceed 30 (thirty) days, and downtime on any single occasion shall not exceed 12 (twelve) consecutive days. Compliance with the annual downtime limit shall not dilute the monthly uptime requirement, and the more stringent requirement shall prevail.

2.2. Downtime

Downtime shall commence from the time the breakdown is reported to the Supplier through telephone, e-mail, online complaint portal or any other mode of communication approved by HLL and shall continue until the MRI System is fully restored to operational condition and its restoration is certified by the HLL.

For the purpose of calculation of downtime penalty, downtime shall be measured in hours. Where penalties are calculated on a daily basis, every completed period of 24 hours of downtime, or proportion thereof, shall be reckoned on a pro-rata basis

2.3. Penalty for Downtime

Where the monthly uptime falls below 95%, HLL shall recover from the monthly Lease Charges a downtime penalty calculated as follows:

Downtime Penalty = Rs:3500/- × (The average number of MRI scans performed per day during the preceding calendar month, or the average number of MRI scans performed per day during the first month, whichever is higher.) × (Downtime expressed in days on a pro-rata basis).

(For the first month of operation, the average number of MRI scans shall be deemed to be 20 scans per day.)

In addition to the above, following penalties shall be applicable:

a. Annual Downtime:

If the cumulative downtime exceeds 30 days in any contract year, an additional penalty of ₹10,000 per day shall be levied for each day beyond the permissible annual downtime.

b. Failure to Provide Alternative Arrangements:

If the MRI System remains non-functional for more than continuous 72 hours and the Supplier fails to provide alternative arrangements acceptable to HLL (such as deployment of an equivalent replacement MRI System or referral arrangements approved by HLL), an additional penalty of ₹30,000 per day shall be levied for each day beyond the initial 72 hours (subject to a maximum of 50% of the Monthly Lease Charges for the relevant billing month) until such alternative arrangements are made or the MRI System is restored.

c. Delay in Attending Breakdown

The Supplier shall ensure that a qualified service engineer responds to every breakdown complaint within 6 (six) hours from the time of reporting. Failure to do so shall attract an additional penalty of ₹2,000 per hour or part thereof until the service engineer reaches the site.

d. Extended Continuous Downtime:

If the downtime on any single occasion exceeds 12 consecutive days due to reasons attributable to the Supplier, HLL shall have the right to terminate the Contract after issuing a notice to the Supplier.

The above penalties shall be without prejudice to any other contractual rights and remedies available to HLL.

2.4. Replacement Equipment

If the MRI System remains non-functional for more than 7 (seven) consecutive calendar days, the Supplier shall, at its own cost and risk, deploy an MRI System of equivalent or higher specifications until the original equipment is restored.

Failure to provide such replacement equipment within the above period shall entitle HLL to procure equivalent services from an alternate source at the sole risk and cost of the Supplier. Any expenditure incurred by HLL in this regard shall be recoverable from the Supplier in addition to the penalties provided under this Contract.

2.5. Chronic Non-Performance

The following shall constitute a material breach of the Contract:

- a) Monthly uptime falling below 90% for two consecutive months;
- b) Monthly uptime falling below 95% during three months in any rolling twelve-month period;
- c) Cumulative downtime exceeding 30 days in any Contract Year;
- d) Failure to deploy replacement equipment as required under Clause 22.6; or
- e) Continuous downtime exceeding 12 consecutive days for reasons attributable to the Supplier.

Upon occurrence of any of the above events, HLL may, after giving the Supplier an opportunity to be heard, terminate the Contract, forfeit the Performance Security and recover all additional costs incurred in arranging alternate services.

2.6. No Waiver

Recovery of penalties under this Clause shall not relieve the Supplier of its obligation to restore the MRI System, maintain the prescribed service levels or discharge any other obligations under the Contract. Recovery of penalties shall also be without prejudice to HLL's right to recover damages or invoke any other contractual remedy available under the Contract.

3. LEASE PERIOD MAINTENANCE, WARRANTY AND SERVICE OBLIGATIONS

The Bidder should offer the MRI Scan facility (ready to use) on lease for a minimum period of 5 years (or as extended for another period as mutually agreed between HLL and its client) commencing from the date of successful installation, commissioning, receipt of all applicable approvals, and acceptance Certificate as detailed in this document.
